Hi Rick,

You will eventually get all the new comments once Cadmus is finished with their work. In the meantime, here is a new comment from the Standing Rock Sioux Tribe:

We are concerned with the extent that in issuing the revised permits, the EPA ignored our Tribe's comments to the 2017 drafts. Specifically, EPA failed to address our comments relating to the interconnection of the Minnelusa and Madison formations and with surface water in the Cheyenne watershed,

I have also attached the 2017 comments about the Minnelusa aquifer and the Class V permit. I sent you Powertech's comments previously, but realized you would probably like to see the other related comments. There may be some duplication of comments between the two documents.
